

Solutions IRB Shared Protection of Human Subject Training Options

Falcon Research Associates offers online training for Solution IRB clients and have created a special training for Midwest Evaluation and Research (MER). There are four modules, each with a separate assessment:

- Ethical Human Subjects Research History and Principles
- Informed Consent
- Privacy and Confidentiality
- Vulnerable and Protected Populations

Once all four modules have been successfully completed, a completion certificate will be generated. Be sure to create a PDF copy of your certificate and email to: lynn.droescher@socialinnovationlab.org

The key is: Mid-West

The screenshot shows a registration form for the Mid-West Evaluation and Research modules. On the left, under the heading "MID-WEST EVALUATION AND RESEARCH", there is a section for "MODULES" featuring the logo of Midwest Evaluation (Shepherd of Company) and the text "Required Human Subjects training for Mid-West Evaluation". On the right, under the heading "REGISTRATION FORM", there is a text input field labeled "Key" with a search icon, and a red "Register" button below it.

The screenshot shows the login page for Falcon Research Associates. At the top, there are two buttons: "SIGN IN" and "PASSWORD?". Below the header, the text "Falcon Research Associates" is displayed. A light blue message box says "User enrolled. Please check your email." Below this are two input fields: "Username (E-mail)" with a user icon and "Password" with a search icon. A blue "Login" button is at the bottom.

Once registered, this course option will appear.

The screenshot shows a course option card. At the top is the logo for Midwest Evaluation (Shepherd of Company). Below the logo, the text reads "Mid-West Evaluation and Research Modu..." and "Category: Mid-West Evaluation".
